

DCRC

Dementia Centre for Research Collaboration

ONLINE SYMPOSIA November 2020

Changed behaviours and psychological symptoms associated with dementia

Wednesday 4th November, 10am – 12.30pm AEST (zoom)

NEW Anxiety and Depression in Dementia Research Network

Wednesday 11th November, 10am – 12.30pm AEST (zoom)

AIMS OF SYMPOSIA:

- Share research on improving care and/ or improving quality of life for people living with dementia, and/ or reducing behaviours and psychological symptoms
- Build collaborations and new partnerships
- Introduce the Anxiety and Depression in Dementia Research Network (ADDResearch)

Who should attend? People interested in dementia research focused on improving care and reducing changed behaviours and psychological symptoms, including people living with dementia, families/ care partners, aged care providers, health professionals, government workers/ policy makers, academics and researchers

ABSTRACTS – submit before 30th September when registering (you can register for one or both)

EMAIL: Claire at c.burley@unsw.edu.au

Register FREE now online

<https://tinyurl.com/y5r35lvk>

CHAIRS

Dr Claire Burley
DCRC, UNSW Sydney

Dr Nadeeka Dissanayaka
University of Queensland

WELCOME FROM

Professor Henry Brodaty
DCRC, UNSW Sydney

